Junior League Puts a Cork in Childhood Hunger with Wine Themed Event

ORLANDO, Fla. (January 6, 2014) – The Junior League of Greater Orlando (JLGO) will host its annual Spring Soiree on Saturday, March 15, 2014 at 8:00 PM at the Quantum Leap Winery. Proceeds from the event will support the Junior League of Greater Orlando's mission and its community programs focused on alleviating childhood hunger and poverty in Central Florida. This year's theme is "Corks for a Cause: Raise a Glass to End Childhood Hunger." The Spring Soiree will be held at Florida's only sustainable winery, Quantum Leap Winery. The venue features a large tasting room, an outdoor terrace and an ambiance of twinkling lights and wine barrels. The night will include silent auction, a raffle, live music, dancing, heavy appetizers and sampling of various wines and beverages. Join JLGO for an evening of good wine, good food and our community coming together to help create a better Central Florida.
