

Han Truong serves as this year's President of the Junior League of Greater Orlando. She has concentrated all of her energies into the League through 8 years of service in positions such as Treasurer, FUNd Chair and Admissions/Provisional Mentor (2 years). Her favorite memory during her service in the League was helping young girls select their prom dresses when the Bargain Box held a Cinderella's Closet fun day. Her primary goal for the League this year is to reenergize its members by connecting them with each other and the community in which they serve. She holds an MBA from Crummer School of Business at Rollins College and currently is currently a Pharmaceuticals Manage Market Account Executive.

Kathrine Brownlee is the President-Elect and has been an active member of the Junior League of Greater Orlando (JLGO) for 9 years and has served the League in various positions including Recording Secretary, Member Development Chair, Member Development Assistant Chair, CRPD Chair and FUNd Development Chair. Kathrine is a homemaker and former high school teacher. She is married to Troy Finnegan. She earned a Bachelor of Arts degree and a Master of Education degree from the University of Florida.

Anna Soike McPherson is Treasurer for JLGO and has been a member since 2005. She enjoys the energy, excitement and passion new members bring to the league every year. Whether it's a new provisional or transfer, she believes we can learn a lot from each other and benefit from fresh ideas from new members. She looks forward to educating members on our League finances in a meaningful way and proving that it isn't boring. She lives in South Orlando with her husband Trey and 14-month-old son Andrew.

Amy Vozza is the Recording Secretary for the Junior League of Greater Orlando and has been a member since 2009. Her previous placements include being a PAL (Personal Active Liaison), member of the Membership Matters committee, Assistant Chair for Admissions/Provisionals and an Advisory Planning committee member. Her favorite League memory was while she was on the Membership Matters committee and being able to connect with the history and traditions of the League while interviewing Sustainer members. She is a proud wife and mother of a one-year old son.

Alison Jean O'Baker is VP of Active Membership. After transferring from Junior League of Boston she became involved with Bargain Box Committee and helped other transfers as Transfer Chair. One of her favorite league memories is going to the 2013 Halloween Hustle and seeing all the creative costumes and kids playing carnival games. Alison is a financial analyst and received a Business Management degree from UCF. She lives in Winter Springs and is close to her parents, sister, nieces and nephews who live in the area. Junior League has given her many professional skills, knowledge, and friendships, and she hopes that she can give back as much as she has received though the organization.

Savannah LaRocca has been with JLGO since 2009 is the VP of Community for this year. She has been actively involved with HIP Kids and has served as Assistant Chair for the program. Delivering gifts to Rock Lake Community Center for the annual holiday party is one of her favorite league moments, and had an SUV packed to the roof with gifts for the children. She is a Business Banking Relationship manager at Regions Bank and also coaches girls volleyball for Orlando Volleyball Academy. She is married to her husband Dani and lives with him, his two children, and their Eskimo Louie in Winter Springs.

Meghan Rose has been active in the League since 2009 and currently holds the board position of VP of Finance. She currently works as Senior Director of Accounting Services for Marriott Vacations Worldwide Corporation and in her spare time she not only volunteers with the Junior League of Greater Orlando but also with Leadership Florida and Women in the Industry. One of the things that she is most proud of in her League experience is leading the committee that was responsible for creating and implementing the Kids Course program in 2010, which focuses on educating children about nutrition and healthy lifestyle choices.

Alex Rister is VP of Marketing and Communications and has been with the Junior League of Greater Orlando since 2010. She has served in areas such as Chair of Special Events, Chair of Public Relations, President's Pick, Assistant Chair for Admissions/Provisionals and on ALJI's task force for New Member Training. Her placement this year as VP of Marketing and Communications fits perfectly with her current professional experience of being a higher-education instructor in the area of communication. She has an M.A. in English from North Florida University and is currently pursuing an M.A. in Communication from University of Central Florida. She resides in downtown Orlando with her husband and three cats.

Alison Kostek is a Finance Manager at Golf Channel and Regional Director of Chapters for the Kappa Kappa Gamma Fraternity. After 4 years with the league she will be serving as VP of Research and Development. One of her main goals is to supply the league with key data to make decisions to grow and looks forward to helping the league improve this year. She is a graduate of Miami University and lives in Dr. Phillips.

Shelley Warticki holds the VP of Sustainer Membership position for the Junior League of Greater Orlando. She has been involved with the League since 1999 and is excited to be back as an active member after being a Sustainer previously. She is looking forward to having fun and connecting with the Sustainer membership at a high level and continuing to serve her community. Shelley is currently an Independent Fashion Consultant with CAbi and raises three children in the Conway area of Central Florida. She holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from University of Central Florida.

Leeann Lee is our Member at Large (MAL) and was previously VP of Research & Development. She has been with JLGO since 2001 and has especially enjoyed Nominating Committee where she learned how the League functions behind the scenes and played a role in identifying new leaders. She wants to ensure that every member has the best possible membership experience this year as MAL. She stays busy raising her 11-year-old daughter and serving as the firm-wide proposal and business development content manager for a national law firm with 900 attorneys. She is passionate about football, yoga and wine and is always happy to talk about the Miami Dolphins.

Angela Gutierrez has been with JLGO since June 2010 and is serving as President's Pick this league year. In the past she has been part of Bargain Box, PAL Advisory Planning, and HIP Kids. She is a Guardian Ad Litem who speaks for children in foster care, and has been helping children in foster care for 5 years. One of her most memorable league experiences was when she was helping at a HIP Kids dinner and dropped about 30 pieces of chicken on the floor. Thankfully they had enough for everyone, even with the incident.

Suzanne Tagman is the Parliamentarian for the League this year after serving in many other key roles throughout her 8 years such as President's Pick (twice), VP of Finance, Advisory Planning member and Bargain Box member. She is looking forward to helping streamline the League's bylaws and policies during this current year. Suzanne earned a B.S. in Accounting from Boston College and currently works as a CPA. She lives with her husband Keith and three active children in SODO, along with her labradoodle, Olive.

Ann Kelly is President's Assistant for this league year and currently works as a mortgage banker. Being part of JLGO has given her wonderful memories and friendships, and truly believes in the organization's purpose. She is a graduate of University of Central Florida with degrees in Communicative Disorders and Journalism and enjoys living in the Thornton Park area with her two cats Ruthie & Lily.

Charlotte Miller, previously part of Junior League of Wichita, is Treasurer-Elect for JLGO this year. She works in insurance sales and is involved in her church where she teaches youth Bible study. She's also an avid reader who loves to curl up with a good book. She lives in St Cloud with her husband JJ, son Caleb, daughters Rebekah & Gabrielle and their Chihuahua Princess.

Robin McKinney has been with JLGO for 5 years and is VP of Finance-Elect. She is a graduate of Davidson College and University of Florida and is a Local Government Attorney. One of her favorite league events was Corks for a Cause in 2014 and looks forward to continuing JLGO's fundraising success. She lives in Winter Park with her 2-year-old Lab/Border Collie Mix Tajar and enjoys cooking, tennis and the North Carolina mountains.
