Junior League of Greater Orlando New Location to be a Grand Event

ORLANDO, Fla. (May 8, 2013) – Celebrating its 65th anniversary, the Junior League of Greater Orlando is throwing a grand celebration for its new location. Both JLGO Headquarters and The Bargain Box ReSale Shop will now be located at 2010 N. Orange Ave on Ivanhoe Row. The grand opening will be held on Saturday, May 11 from 9 AM-11 AM. Rainforest Cafe, Winter Park Distillery and Landry's are sponsors for the event providing refreshments. The Container Store also sponsored and helped organize the new location. Special dignitaries attending are Commissioner Robert Stuart of District 3, first female Mayor of Orlando and past Secretary of State, Glenda Hood and FL Representative Karen Castor Dental. Mayor Buddy Dyer will be helping with the ribbon cutting. The media are encouraged to attend.

The historic Walker-Hendry House, located beneath the East/West Expressway, has been the League Headquarters since the 1980's. The house was originally built in the late 1800's. The house will remain a historic site.

The Bargain Box moved from 503 North Virginia Ave. in Winter Park. The store has been one of the League's biggest fundraiser benefiting its community programs.

ABOUT JLGO
